VI - Selection process in relative merit

The methodology of selection in relative merit is as follows:

a) During the meeting, each member of the hiring committee submits a written document, which will be attached to the minutes, stating their own ordering of the applicants, of the applicants' scientific performance, pedagogical skills and other relevant activities, and showing their respective weights. At each ballot, every member of the hiring committee will always abide by the ordering they submitted. Abstentions are not permitted.

b) The first ballot is intended to determine which applicant shall be placed at the top of the ordered list.

c) If an applicant obtains more than half of the votes, the applicant shall be placed first on the ordered list;

d) If two applicants obtain exactly half of the votes each, the hiring committee's chairperson shall have the casting vote, choosing the one that is placed first on the ordered list. The hiring committee's chairperson will use the highest score in the dimension «Pedagogical Capacity» as a tiebreaker; if the tie remains, the tie will be broken by the dimension «Technical-Scientific and Professional Performance», and finally, if necessary, by the dimension «Other activities relevant to the mission of the University»;

e) If none of the situations provided for in paragraphs c) and d) above are met, a new ballot will take place after applicants who obtained no votes in the previous ballot have been eliminated as well as the applicant who obtained fewest votes but who obtained at least one vote;

f) If there is a draw between two or more applicants for the position of least-voted, another ballot shall be held to determine which of the least-voted applicants shall be eliminated. At this ballot, the hiring committee members vote obligatorily for the applicant who is lowest-placed on their own seriation;

g) If there is still a draw between two or more applicants, the hiring committee's chairperson decides which applicant shall be eliminated. The hiring committee's chairperson will use the lowest score in the dimension «Pedagogical Capacity» as a tiebreaker; if the tie remains, the tie will be broken by the dimension «Technical-Scientific and Professional Performance», and finally, if necessary, by the dimension «Other activities relevant to the mission of the University». The applicant with the lowest score will be eliminated.

h) After this applicant has been eliminated along with the applicants who received no votes in the first ballot, another ballot will be held to decide which applicant shall be placed at the top of the ordered list, continuing to use the same procedure until one applicant obtains more than half the votes for first place.

i) Once an applicant has been placed first on the ordered list, his or her name shall be removed from the voting and the process will be repeated to find the second-placed applicant, and so on until all the applicants have been placed on the ordered list.
