Offer Description

PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT

(International tender for the position of Assistant Professor, in the Economics group, disciplinary area of Macroeconomics, at the Faculty of Economics of the University of Algarve)

By ordinance dated June 3rd, 2025 issued by the Rector of the University of Algarve, an international tender has been opened for the filling of a vacancy for the position of Assistant Professor in the Economics group, disciplinary area of Macroeconomics, at the Faculty of Economics of the University of Algarve.

The tender will be open for a period of 30 working days, starting from the working day immediately following the publication of this announcement in Diário da República (the Official Portuguese Gazette).

This tender is open under the program contract signed between the Foundation for Science and Technology, I.P. and the University of Algarve, within the scope of the competition to stimulate institutional scientific employment 2021 and is governed by the provisions of Articles 37 to 39, 41-A to 51, 61 and 62-A of the Estatuto da Carreira Docente Universitária (Career Statutes for University Academic Staff, forthwith referred to as ECDU republished in the annex to Decree-Law No. 205/2009, of August 31, amended by Law No. 8/2010, of May 13, as well as the Regulation for the Tendering of Personnel for Teaching Careers at the University of Algarve, Regulation no. 520/2010, published in Diário da República, 2nd series, no. 111, on 9 June 2010.

This tender will be published in the Public Employment Exchange (BEP), within 2 working days after its publication in Diário da República, as decreed by Law no. 78/2003, of 23 April, advertised on the Euraxess Portugal portal at <https://www.euraxess.pt>, and on the University's website, in both Portuguese and English, in accordance with Article 62-A, paragraph 1, of ECDU, in its current version.

The purpose of this tender is to fill one (1) position, in the form of a non-fixed-term contract as a government employee, in accordance with Article 25 of ECDU. The tender will end once the position has been filled.

The rector is authorized, under Article 92, paragraphs d), e) and q) of Law 62/2007 of 10 September, to cancel the tender in the event of extenuating circumstances.

In compliance with Article 9, paragraph h) of the Constitution of the Portuguese Republic, Public Administrations actively promote a policy of equal opportunities for employment and career progression between men and women, taking every possible measure to avoid any kind of discrimination.

I - Admission requirements

1. Admission requirements

a) Applicants must hold a doctoral degree in the scientific area of Economics, under the terms of article 41.º-A of the ECDU.

i) Holders of a doctoral degree obtained outside Portugal must prove their degree is recognized in Portugal under the terms of Decree-Law No. 66/2018, of 16 August, and other applicable legislation;

ii) Applicants to whom the previous subparagraph applies who do not provide proof of recognition before the end of the application period, will be excluded from the tender.

b) Proficiency in the Portuguese language, both spoken and written.

Non-native speakers of Portuguese must provide proof of proficiency through presentation of an officially recognized diploma, from the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages of the Council of Europe (proficiency level C1) by the end of the term granted for the contract's signature. Failure to submit a language proficiency document within that deadline prevents the contract from being concluded with the candidate, with the hiring proposal being transferred to the next candidate.

c) Applicants must meet the general requirements for employment in public functions provided for in article 17, in the Law No. 35/2014, of 20 June, in its current version, unless exempted by the ECDU.

2- Applicants will be excluded from the tender procedure if they:

i) Do not hold a doctoral degree in the scientific area of Economics, under the terms of article 41.º-A of the ECDU;

- ii) Do not hold a recognized doctoral degree in Portugal, by the closing date of the tender, if their qualification is from a foreign institution;
- iii) Do not meet the general requirements for employment in public functions foreseen in Article 17 of the Labor Law in Public Functions, contained in the Annex to Law No. 35/2014, of 20 June, in its current wording, unless exempted by the ECDU;
- iv) Do not submit the required documents as determined in the Public Notice, within the deadline stipulated for this purpose.

3 - The selection committee will notify the candidates of the exclusion of their application, by email with receipt of delivery, for the purposes of a preliminary hearing.

II – Admission requirements in absolute merit and their assessment:

1. Acceptance and evaluation of applicants on the basis of absolute merit will depend, cumulatively, on the following:

- a) The applicant holds a curriculum that the selection committee considers to demonstrate scientific merit, research capacity and value of the pedagogical activity already carried out, as well as compatibility with the subject area for which the tender is open, and suitability for the respective teaching category;
- b) The applicant must demonstrate solid skills in the scientific area of Macroeconomics and in the scientific area of Quantitative Methods Applied to Economics and Management;
- c) The applicant must have 2 articles published, or definitively accepted for publication, since 2021 (inclusive), in scientific journals indexed in categories 2 to 4* of the Academic Journal Guide ranking of the Chartered Association of Business Schools (ABS), 2024 edition; or must have at least 1 article published, or definitively accepted for publication, since 2021 (inclusive), in scientific journals indexed in categories 3 to 4* of the same ranking;
- d) The applicant must demonstrate, in his/her curriculum vitae and other submitted documentation, that he/she is developing research work in areas of scientific activity of the Center for Studies and Advanced Training in Management and Economics (CEFAGE) and that his/her scientific production meets the criteria for integration into the Center as a doctoral member, as set out in Article 4 of Chapter III of the Annex to the CEFAGE Regulations.

2. A vote against admission on absolute merit must be based on the non-observance of one or more of the criteria set out in the previous paragraph.

3. In order to assess the absolute merit of the applicants, each member of the selection committee will independently submit a list of the applicants that do not meet the requirements indicated in paragraph 1 of point II, and provide a written justification for their decision, and then the selection committee will proceed to vote on each of those proposals, in accordance with Article 50, paragraph 1, subparagraph b) of the ECDU. Abstentions will not be allowed.

4. An application will be rejected on absolute merit if at least one such proposal receives favourable votes by the majority of the members of the selection committee present at the meeting. The justification for exclusion of the applicant will be explicitly written up in the official minutes of the meeting.

5. The selection committee will notify applicants of their exclusion based on absolute merit, by means of e-mail with a receipt of delivery, for the purpose of a preliminary hearing.

III — Application instructions

1. The application must be submitted by means of a request addressed to the Rector of the University of Algarve, available on the website of the University <https://www.ualg.pt/procedimentos-concursais>, by accessing Documents – Teaching Staff – Application Form, and it may be submitted:

a) In person, at the Human Resources Department, situated on floor 0 of the Library Building at the Penha Campus of the University of Algarve, in Faro; or

b) By registered mail, posted no later than the deadline for submitting the applications, addressed to: Serviços de Recursos Humanos, Campus da Penha, Universidade do Algarve, 8005-139 Faro, Portugal.

2. The application for admission to the tender must include copies of the following documents in electronic pdf format, in Portuguese or English:

a) Valid identification document at the date of application;

b) Certificate proving that the applicant holds a doctoral degree in a specialty appropriate to the tender;

c) One (1) curriculum vitae, dated and signed, which includes details of the scientific, pedagogical and other activities relevant to the mission of higher education institutions carried out by the candidate, strictly following the order of the parameters and factors stated in Point V of this notice, and the list of works to be presented according to the following paragraph;

d) One (1) copy of each of the works selected by the applicant, up to a maximum of five, as the most representative, particularly regarding their contribution to the development and progress of the group in which the tender is opened, in accordance with Article 50, paragraph 6, point a) of the ECDU. Additionally, an optional supporting document may be included to explain the relevance of the selected publications;

e) A supporting document outlining the applicant's teaching activities, if applicable, for the purposes of Article 50, paragraph 6, point b) of the ECDU;

f) Indication of the results of the pedagogic surveys, carried out in relation to the curricular units for which the applicant has been responsible or in which the applicant has participated, when they exist and if applicable, as foreseen in Article 50, paragraph 6, subparagraph b) of the ECDU;

g) Other documents which the applicant considers to be of interest for the selection committee to be able to fully appreciate his or her scientific performance, pedagogical skills, and other relevant activities that he or she may have undertaken and which would constitute a legally-founded reason for preference, although the selection committee shall only consider such activities as being duly proven if it should deem appropriate;

h) A criminal clearance certificate attesting to the fact that the applicant is not banned from working in government service or from exercising the professional functions for which he/she is applying to;

i) A statement confirming that the applicant has the physical robustness and mental profile required for the exercise of the functions in question;

j) An up-to-date vaccination certificate.

3. The documents referred to in paragraphs h) to j), may be waived during the submission stage of the application, provided that the applicants present a declaration on their honour detailing the situation in which they find themselves in relation to each of these requirements. The failure to make a written declaration constitutes grounds for exclusion. The delivery of these documents will be required, should the applicant be selected for the vacancy.

4. The documents required in paragraphs a) to g) should be delivered in a pen-drive, which should be searchable and contain the entries of the associated publications accessible through clickable links, which may be recorded in the same digital media or in a freely accessible repository on the Internet. There should also be clickable links to the web pages of the entities or events referred to in the curriculum vitae where relevant and feasible, and to the web pages of the subjects and course units for which the applicant has been responsible.

5. The curriculum vitae and respective appendices must be systematized in the order of the parameters factors listed in point V of this Notice. Failure to comply with this order may result in the information not being considered for evaluation. The same applies to the accessibility of the clickable links, whose correct functioning must be verified by the candidate, so that the selection committee members have access to the information.

6. According to Article 7, paragraph 2 of the Regulation governing tenders for the contracting of teaching staff for the University of Algarve, the hiring committee may request additional documentation related to the submitted curriculum.

IV – Public Hearings

1. The selection committee may decide to hold public hearings, on an equal footing for all applicants, and pursuant to the terms of Article 50, paragraph 4, subparagraph b) of the ECDU and pursuant to Article 7, paragraph 2, of the Regulation governing tenders for the contracting of lecturing personnel for the University of Algarve;

2. If the tender selection committee decides to hold the hearings referred to in the previous paragraph, the conditions and scheduling of the hearing shall be announced to the applicants at least 8 days in advance.

V - Evaluation parameters and seriation in relative merit, respective weighting and final valuation system

The curricular evaluation focuses on activities developed by applicants over the last five years, and their suitability for the Assistant Professor category, considering the following parameters and respective weightings:

- a) Scientific performance (50%);
- b) Pedagogical capacity (40%);
- c) Other activities relevant to the University's mission (10%).

The assessment for each parameter is based on the factors indicated below and will be expressed on a scale of 0-100 points.

A) Scientific Performance (50%) - In the assessment of scientific performance the following factors will be considered:

- a) Scientific production: Quality and quantity of scientific production expressed by the number and type of publications in international journals indexed in the area of the tender. (60%)
- b) Participation in scientific research projects with external funding. (20%)
- c) Supervision in advanced programs, particularly in doctoral and master courses. (10%)
- d) Intervention in scientific communities, expressed, in particular, through the review of articles submitted for publication in international journals indexed in the area of the tender and the presentation of papers at conferences in the area of the tender. (10%)

B) Pedagogical capacity (40%) considering the following evaluation parameters:

a) Teaching activity - Quality and diversity of the teaching activity developed by the applicant, taking into account, among other relevant factors, the results of extensive opinion gathering (e.g., pedagogical surveys), which should be mentioned in the curriculum vitae, whenever available. (50%)

b) Participation in academic examination juries. (25%)

b) Other pedagogical activities - Quality and quantity of pedagogical material and pedagogical publications produced by the applicant and other activities with an impact on the teaching-learning process carried out by the applicant. (25%);

C) Other relevant activities (10%), considering the following evaluation parameters:

a) Holding management positions in educational units or higher education institutions. (40%)

b) Active involvement in the development of outreach and engagement projects aimed at promoting scientific, educational, and artistic-cultural dissemination, and at delivering services to the academic community, industry, and the wider public. (40%)

c) Member of the organizing committee for congresses and conferences. (20%)

VI - Selection process in relative merit

1. The methodology for selection in relative merit is the following:

a) During the meeting, each member of the selection committee will submit a written document, which will be annexed to the meeting minutes, stating their own ordering of the applicants based on the applicants' scientific performance, pedagogic skills and other relevant activities, with their respective weights. In all voting rounds, each member of the jury shall consistently adhere to the ranking they have submitted, and abstentions shall not be permitted;

b) The first vote is intended to determine which applicant is placed at the top of the ordered list;

c) If an applicant obtains more than half of the votes, he/she shall be ranked first in the ordered list;

d) If two candidates each obtain exactly half of the votes, the president of the jury will break the tie by choosing the one who is placed first in the ordered list. The president of the jury will use the date of the doctorate as the tiebreaker, with the most recent one prevailing;

e) If neither of those two cases occurs (c and d), a new vote will be held after removing the candidates who did not receive any votes in the first vote and also eliminating the least voted candidate but who received at least one vote;

f) If there is more than one candidate with the lowest number of votes, a vote will be held with only those candidates to decide which one to eliminate. For this vote, the jury members must vote for the candidate who is lowest in their ranking;

g) If there is a tie between two or more candidates in this vote, the jury president will decide which candidate to eliminate. The jury president will use the date of the doctorate as the tiebreaker. The candidate with the longest doctorate being eliminated;

h) After eliminating that candidate and the candidates who did not receive votes in the first round, the vote is held again for the candidate to be placed in first place, repeating, if necessary, the process described above, until a candidate obtains more than half of the votes for first place;

i) Once a candidate has been placed first on the ordered list, that candidate is removed from the scrutiny and the process is repeated for the second place, and so on, until an ordered list of all candidates is obtained.
