Offer Description

PUBLIC NOTICE

International call for applications for one position of Assistant Professor, in the field of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Faculty of Science and Technology, University of Algarve

By order dated 3 October 2025 issued by the Rector of the University of Algarve, an international call for the position of Assistant Professor is open in the subject area of Pharmaceutical Sciences, at the Faculty of Science and Technology of the University of Algarve. The call will be open, for a period of 30 working days, starting from the working day immediately following the publication of this announcement in Diário da República (the Official Portuguese Gazette).

This call is governed by the provisions of Articles 37 to 39, 41-A a 51, 61 and 62-A of the Estatuto da Carreira Docente Universitária - Statute of the University Teaching Career (ECDU), in its current version, as well as the Regulation for the Tendering of Personnel for Teaching Careers at the University of Algarve, Regulation no. 520/2010, published in Diário da República, 2nd series, no. 111, on 9 June 2010.

This call will be published in the Public Employment Pool (BEP) within 2 working days, after its publication in Diário da República, pursuant to Decree-Law no. 78/2003, of 23 April. It will be advertised on the Euraxess Portugal portal at <https://www.euraxess.pt>, and on the University's website, in both Portuguese and English, in accordance with Article 62-A, paragraph 1, of ECDU, in its current version.

The purpose of this call is to fill one (1) position, in the form of a permanent public employment contract, in accordance with Article 25 of ECDU. The tender will end once the positions have been filled.

The Rector reserves the right, under Article 92, paragraphs d), e) and q) of Law 62/2007 of 10 September, to cancel the tender in the event of extenuating circumstances.

In compliance with Article 9, paragraph h) of the Constitution of the Portuguese Republic, Public Administrations, actively promote a policy of equal opportunities for employment and career progression between men and women, taking every possible measure to avoid any kind of discrimination.

There should also be clickable links to the web pages of the entities or events referred to in the curriculum vitae, and when relevant, and feasible, to the web pages of the courses (curricular units) for which the applicant has been responsible.

5. The curriculum vitae and respective appendices must be systematized in the order of the parameter's factors listed in point V of this Notice. Failure to comply with this order may result in the information not being considered for evaluation. The same applies to the accessibility of the clickable links, whose correct functioning must be verified by the candidate, so that the selection committee members have access to the information.

6 - According to Article 7, paragraph 2 of the Regulation governing tenders for the contracting of lecturing personnel for the University of Algarve, the selection committee may request additional documentation related to the submitted curriculum.

IV – Public Hearings

1 - The jury may decide to hold public hearings, on an equal footing for all applicants, and pursuant to the terms of Article 50, paragraph 4, subparagraph b) of the ECDU and pursuant to Article 7, paragraph 2, of the Regulation governing tenders for the contracting of lecturing personnel for the University of Algarve;

2 - If the tender jury decides to hold the hearings referred to in the previous paragraph, the conditions and scheduling of the hearing shall be announced to the applicants at least eight (8) days in advance.

V - Evaluation parameters and seriation in relative merit, respective weighting and final evaluation system

The curricular evaluation focuses on the activities developed by the applicants, in the disciplinary area of the tender, and its adequacy to the position of Assistant Professor, considering the following parameters and respective weightings:

- A) Scientific performance (50%),
- B) pedagogic capacity (40%)
- C) other activities relevant to the University's mission (10%).

The evaluation of each parameter is based on the components indicated below and will be expressed on a scale of 0-100 points.

A) Scientific Performance, with a weighting of 50%. In the assessment of scientific performance, the following components of the parameter will be considered:

a) Scientific production - Quality and quantity of scientific production (books, book chapters, Articles in indexed international journals, communications at conferences) expressed, namely, by the number and type of publications in indexed international journals and by the recognition given to them by the scientific community (translated as the quality and reference made to them by other authors) (45%);

b) Participation in scientific research projects with external funding, taking into consideration the project's dimension, scientific and technological level, degree of innovation and project results, including final evaluation when applicable (20%);

c) Supervision of academic work: supervision of advanced training, namely supervision of master's degrees and doctorates (10%);

d) Participation as an editor of international journals, reviewer of publications in international journals, applications for research grants or advanced training and scientific projects (10%).

e) Intervention in the scientific and professional communities associated with Pharmaceutical Sciences — Ability to intervene in the scientific and professional communities expressed, namely, through the organization and participation in events, association with professional organizations, collaboration in the publication of journals, presentation of guest lectures and consultancy activities (10%).

f) Career development plan containing objectives, scientific-pedagogical development plan and synopsis of the line of research that the candidate intends to implement (5%).

B) Pedagogical capacity, with a weighting of 40%. The following components of the parameter will be considered when assessing pedagogic capacity:

a) Lecturing - Quality and diversity of the lecturing activity developed by the applicant, taking into account, among other relevant factors, the results of opinion polls (e. g., pedagogic surveys), which should be mentioned in the curriculum, whenever available (70%);

b) Participation in juries of academic examinations (10%);

c) Other pedagogic activities - Quality and quantity of pedagogic material and publications of a pedagogic nature produced by the applicant, other activities with an impact on the teaching-learning process carried out by the applicant, including training internships for young graduates or masters (20%).

C) Other relevant activities for the University's mission, with a weighting of 10%. In the evaluation of other relevant activities, the following components of the parameter will be considered:

a) Participation in management activities in institutions of higher education/business or research in the area of Pharmaceutical Sciences or in other entities of a scientific, technological or cultural nature that carry out relevant activities within the scope of the mission (20%);

b) Participation in actions and publications of scientific, cultural or technological dissemination (20%);

c) Participation in the development of outreach projects including scientific dissemination and the provision of services to the scientific/educational community, the economic-productive fabric and/or society in general (40%);

d) Organization of scientific or educational events in the scientific area of the application (20%).

VI - Selection process in relative merit

1 - The methodology for selection in relative merit is the following:

a) During the meeting, each member of the selection committee will submit a written document, which will be annexed to the meeting minutes, stating their own ordering of the applicants, of the applicants' scientific performance, pedagogic skills and other relevant activities, and their respective weights. At each ballot, every member of the selection committee will abide by the ordering they submitted, and abstentions are not permitted;

b) The first ballot is intended to determine which applicant is placed at the top of the ordered list;

c) If an applicant obtains more than half of the votes, they shall be ranked first in the ordered list;

d) If two applicants obtain exactly half of the votes each, the president of the selection committee has the casting vote to decide which is ranked first in the ordered list. The selection board president will use as tie-breaking criteria the date the Doctoral degree was conferred, the most recent prevailing;

e) If neither of those two cases c) and d) occurs, a new ballot will take place after elimination of applicants who obtained no, or at least one vote in the previous ballot;

f) If there is a draw between two or more applicants for the position of least-voted, another ballot shall be held to determine which of the least-voted applicants shall be eliminated. At this ballot, selection committee members vote for the applicant ranked last in their own seriation;

g) If there is still a draw between two or more applicants, the selection committee president shall decide which shall be eliminated. The selection committee president will use as tie-breaking criteria the date the Doctoral degree was conferred, the most recent prevailing;

h) After this applicant has been eliminated along with the applicants who received no votes in the first ballot, another ballot will be held to decide which applicant shall be ranked first in the ordered list, continuing to use the same procedure until one applicant obtains more than half the votes for first place;

i) Once an applicant has been placed first on the ordered list, his or her name shall be removed from the voting and the process will be repeated to find the second-placed applicant, and so on until all the applicants have been ordered.

VII - Composition of the Jury

President: Vice-Rector of the University of Algarve, Professor Doctor Nuno Gonçalo Viana Pereira Ferreira Bicho, by delegation of powers from the Rector.
